Jacques Ernest Sarrazin was a blockade runner who operated primarily along the Mississippi coast. He was Captain of the steamship Anna which was captured on November 22, 1861 by the USS Cuyler and the USS Massachusetts in the Mississippi Sound. Captain Sarrazin was sent to a POW camp in New York. Although he was Catholic, he was a Mason and it is supposed that, through his fraternal contacts, his transfer to a prison in Havana was arranged. He escaped from the prison in Cuba and returned to his home in Pascagoula, Mississippi.

How could I determine the names of the prisons to which he was sent?
How can I determine the names of the crew who were captured and the disposition of their confinement?

Thanks for your consideration.

John Warren and wife Elizabeth(Perkins) Warren came from Liberty County Georgia before 1811. They settled at Sandy Hook Mississippi in Marion County. Their Children were:

Daniel Rees

John,

Samuel

Jesse

Jane

Elizabeth

Martha

All of these children remained in this county. NOTE: Daniel Rees was not always in Marion County. He lived for a time in Louisiana and then in Hinds County Mississippi, but sold his land there and removed to Marion County where he died. J.F.S. One daughter, Elizabeth married Sampson Ball October 1800. Ref: P. 102, Vol. 131 Midway Congregational Church Records. Georgia Historical Society, Savannah, Ga. Martha Warren married William Rankin (Another family found in Marion County to-day. J.F.S. He was a native of Ireland and a first cousin of John C. Calhoun of South Carolina. A noted statesman of that state. William Rankin had a brother James Rankin. They came from Ireland to South Carolina and were reared in the home of Patrick Calhoun, their Uncle. The Rankin brothers were orphans. They migrated to Mississippi in 1818. James Rankin later went to Texas. (Note: I have met his descendants here in Fort Worth. J.F.S.)

This Bible record can be found in the possession of Mrs. Rankin, Sandy Hook Mississippi, who lives in the old John Ford House on Pearl River. I had a copy but sent it to Washington when I was fighting for the correction in the D.A.R. papers of Mrs. O'Ferrall who had been a member of D.A.R. for twenty years on the service of the wrong John Warren. As given he was from Guilford Co. N.C. She deserved to have the service of Captain John Warren of Liberty County Georgia and of Craven County South Carolina. J.F.S.

The Warren family cemetery is located near Sandy Hook, Marion County, Mississippi, very near the old residence built by Jesse Warren who was the son of Mr. Liberty Warren mentioned by the W.P. interviewer on the Marion County Writers Project found in the Archives at Jackson Mississippi.

This old Warren home is occupied by the sister of Mr. Liberty Warren and is in a good state of preservation.

John Warren and his wife, Elizabeth Perkins Warren, with Daniel Rees Warren and his wife, Martha Seal Warren are all buried in this cemetery. I have seen the graves.

Ann Wilmoth Smith Warren is buried in a cemetery not too far from Sandy Hook and I have seen this grave also, in company with Mr. Liberty Warren.

I have visited the old home of John Ford-one of the Warren sisters married the son of John Ford. She it was who supplied Mrs. O'Ferrall with the Bible record as she had kept it. Mrs. Rankin lives in this old Ford home and has the records kept by her husband who was the authority on all of these things who were related to each other. I searched her records too, with her courteous permission. Some of these same Ford's got into Jackson County at Pascagoula, and intermarried with the Sarrazin family connections. Ford and Ford-both names there are some of this family. (It was Sarah Warren who married the son of John Ford.)

Dear Mrs. Greene -

I do so much appreciate your nice letter and your thoughtfulness in sending me the snapshot - I have thought many times since I was in Pascagoula of the truly wonderful thing you and Mr. Greene are doing by restoring the cemetery - have even mentioned it to various people from time to time, and always have met with a reaction like my own. It is very heart-warming, in this day and age, I know that there

(L)

Mrs. Jerry W Davidson
2437 Meazord Ct. E - Fortworth, Texas 76109

are still people who care about those who have gone before them — and, for my part, I am most grateful.

I already had the material Mr. J. P. Rappin sent concerning Hugo Freese's parents, brothers, and sisters — in fact, I have photographs of some of the entries — but was glad to have it reconfirmed as to the brothers and sisters. I suppose he may have been buried at the Fort, since he wasn't at Mobile or New Orleans — but if so the stone must be long gone —

2

There must be many which have disappeared - I remember seeing, Twelve or more years ago, a tall 7 slender stone, close to the lake end, for the Leonard 7 Sarrazin who married Corinne Belbo - It was down, and the next time I went there I did not see it at all - What I was really looking for, and could not find then, was the stone of his ^{grand-}father, also Leonard 7 Sarrazin - (I knew he was buried there, and have two different inscriptions written by my great-grandfather on the back of a railroad timetable!) I saw the

C

X upper half of it last summer — The lower half was upside down in same position now.
Same day when you are there — if it's among the ones already filed — would you do me a tremendous favor and copy for me whichever inscription they finally decided upon?
That is, if it's legible? —
He was Leonard Sarrazin, X born in France about 1778, died in New Orleans 1843.
I think I recall seeing on the same stone something concerning a daughter of J. L.
Sarrazin, also — but it's Leonard I'm interested in primarily, hoping they might have given a definite birth³ date?

Which tombstone is the one standing — The only one not broken?

Grandma only knows when I'll get to Pascagoula again — but when I do I certainly will make a special trip to the Fair to see Feni's 'Casket Handles' — didn't know until I'd already been to the Fair that they were there. I have a portrait of him and my buffet, and have always been very fond of him — The one of his wife burned

Several years ago when our house caught fire — I've always been glad his didn't, since he was my "Javanite" anyway - (my great-great-grandfather -)

Please tell your husband for me that I surely do appreciate the care, attention, and hard work you both are expending so generously on the Cemetery — it must mean a great deal to every French descendant — I'll be hoping for the pleasure of meeting you both when I find myself there again —
Sincerely,

URE HOLDS MUCH PROMISE

ary Chamber of Commerce Re-ns from Extensive Trip in Interest of the Port.

L. M. Shepardson, secretary and manager, Chamber of Commerce Point-Pascagoula, returned Monday evening from a trip to New Orleans, St. Louis and Hattiesburg on a tour of material interest to this port. In New Orleans he attended a meeting of the Transportation and Commerce Committee of the Southern Association, at which meeting it was decided to oppose vigorously the Interstate Commerce Commission's advance in export freight on lumber ordered into effect in December, 1919, as one of the last acts of the United States Railroad Administration. This increase affects all exports on lumber from points south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi river to South Atlantic and Gulf ports, putting on the lumber companies that are doing an export business an increase of from 40 to 50 per cent in addition to the 25 per cent increase which they were committed to stand in May, 1918, which was the crippling and in some cases the destruction of the export business of this part of the country. Since the increase was not made from the west to the Mississippi river

NEW ORLEANS GIRL POPULAR IN NORTH

The dramatic ranks have had many recruits from the New Orleans field and many of the brightest lights in the profession proudly claim nativity in the Crescent City. Both the stage and the screen have enjoyed added lustre because of the New Orleans stars and they are only the forerunners of others who aspire to be stars and who doubtless will succeed. A New Orleans girl who has been winning histrionic honors in the far North is Miss Camile Sarrazin, in private life Mrs. Frederick Wood. For two years she has been traveling through the North with some of the best companies, but is now with the Ernie Marks company which has been touring Canada since the first of the year and is now filling a six weeks' engagement at Sturgeon Falls, Ontario. She features with Mr. Wood a sketch, "The Allies" in which she sings, "The Marseillaise," in French, and "The Star Spangled Banner," in English. They are very popular with the Canadians. Miss Sarrazin has many relatives and friends in New Orleans. Her mother, one sister and one brother reside here and other sister and three brothers are in other parts of the country. One brother is in the United States service.—Times-Picayune.

Mrs. Wood, who is the sister of Mrs. Dr. Jos. A. Tabor of this city, was born and reared in Pascagoula, and has many relatives and friends here who are gratified at her success on the stage.

DR. JOSEPH A. TABOR.

The death of Dr. Joseph A. Tabor, which occurred in an infirmary in Atlanta, Ga., on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, while not unexpected, came as a shock to his many friends in this city. He had been in a precarious condition for some time, and about ten days ago was taken to Mobile for treatment.

There it was found that he was suffering with a serious condition of the blood and a specialist in such cases advised that he be sent to Atlanta where, it was said, there was one of the few surgeons who could successfully cope with such a situation. This was done, but in spite of all the expert surgical treatment, and the attention of trained specialists and nurses, the end came. He was attended to the last by his faithful wife, brother, and other loved ones.

The remains were brought to Pascagoula on Thursday evening and taken to his late home in Live Oak street, from which the funeral will take place Friday afternoon at two o'clock. He will be buried with Masonic honors, being a member of Gulf Lodge at Pascagoula.

Dr. Tabor was an Elk, a Rotarian and a Mason, enjoyed a large practice here where he had lived and practiced his chosen profession since 1899. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Mathilde Sarrazin, a daughter, Lucille, and two brothers.

A more extended notice of his life, death and funeral will be given next week, time and space not permitting at this writing.

Mrs. Lizzie Watters was placed on the docket yesterday on a charge of embezzling $1,800 from C. Ravier & Sons, florists, 400 George street, where she was employed as bookkeeper.

Fred Ravier, member of the firm, said that the alleged embezzlement covered a period of two years but that the exact sum is not known, as the auditors had not completed inspection of the books.

Mrs. Watters, who is out on bond of $1,000, will be heard at the March term of circuit court.
